All Saints Catholic Primary School may also obtain personal data from other sources such as its own CCTV systems, or correspondence.

5. How do we handle personal data?

In order to achieve the purposes described under section 1 All Saints Catholic Primary School will handle personal data in accordance with the Act. In particular we will ensure that personal data is handled fairly and lawfully with appropriate justification. We will strive to ensure that any personal data used by us or on our behalf is of the highest quality in terms of accuracy, relevance, adequacy and non-excessiveness, is kept as up to date as required, is protected appropriately, and is reviewed, retained and securely destroyed when no longer required.

6. How do we ensure the security of personal data?

All Saints Catholic Primary School takes the security of all personal data under our control very seriously. We will ensure that appropriate policy, training, technical and procedural measures are in place, including audit and integrity monitoring, to protect our manual and electronic information systems from data loss and misuse, and only permit access to them when there is a legitimate reason to do so, and then under strict guidelines as to what use may be made of any personal data contained within them. These procedures are continuously managed and enhanced to ensure up-to-date security.

7. Who do we disclose personal data to?

We sometimes need to share information with the individuals we process information about and other organisations. Where this is necessary we are required to comply with all aspects of the Act. What follows is a description of the types of organisations we may need to share some of the personal information that we process with for one or more reasons:

It may sometimes be necessary for the School to transfer personal information overseas. When this is needed information may be transferred to countries or territories around the world. Any transfers made will be in full compliance with all aspects of the Act.

8. What are your rights in relation to your personal data which is handled by All Saints Catholic Primary School?

Individuals have various rights under the Act:

Right of access

You can obtain a copy, subject to exemptions, of your personal data held by the School. A copy of the application form is available on the Council's website.

Under the Act you are also entitled to obtain confirmation as to whether or not data concerning you is being processed by the School. Where that is the case, you are entitled to the following information subject to exemptions:

- The purposes of and legal basis for the processing
- The categories of personal data concerned
- The recipients to whom the personal data has been disclosed
- The period for which it is envisaged that the personal data will be stored
- Communication of the personal data undergoing processing and of any available information as to its origin.

Please note that 'processing' means an operation or set of operations performed on personal data such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaption, alteration, erasure, restriction, retrieval.*

Proof of ID and any further information needed to locate the information may be required before the School can comply with your request.

Any request for the above information should be made in writing to the Data Protection Officer and the School will respond within one month.

Rectification of data

You can request the School to rectify inaccurate personal data relating to you. If the data is inaccurate because it is incomplete, the School must complete it if required to do so by you.

A request should be made in writing to the Data Protection Officer and a response will be sent within one month.

Erasure or restriction of personal data

You can request that the School erase your data or restrict any processing of your data, subject to exemptions.

All requests should be made to the Data Protection Officer. The School will then inform you of whether the request has been granted and if it has been refused, the reasons for the refusal.

Right not to be subject to automated decision-making

Under the Act you have the right, subject to exemptions, not to be subject to a decision when it is based on automated processing and it produces a legal effect or a similarly significant effect on you. You have a right to express your point of view and obtain an explanation from the School of its decision and challenge it.

However, it should be noted that this right does not apply to all decisions as there are exemptions for example authorisation by law, performance of a contract to which you are a party.

9. How long does All Saints Catholic Primary School retain personal data?

The School keeps personal data as long as is necessary for the particular purpose or purposes for which it is held in accordance with the School's Retention Policy.
